

We welcome and celebrate the increasing religious diversity in Connecticut and the United States.

We promote mutual understanding and respect for all religious traditions through continuing dialogue and interaction among participants of all religions. We recognize that everyone has much to learn from each other.

We act against religious bigotry and dogmatism through study and dialogue groups, conferences and seminars.

The

Council for Interreligious
Understanding,
Inc.

The Connecticut Council for Interreligious Understanding, Inc. was founded in 1994 to encourage interreligious programs and build better communities through interreligious understanding.

Religion has a profound effect on the development of civilization, geopolitics and social mores.

This is a time when the inter-racial and multicultural nature of secular and religious communities grows to unprecedented proportions. This fosters social and community interaction with the potential for diverse religious affiliations, as well as conflicts.
